

Innovation Cooperation Center (Bangkok) Chinese Academy of Sciences (CAS ICCB), is the first CAS overseas organization promoting global science, technology and innovation in the scope of achievements commercialization devoting as a major deployment answering the call of ASEAN Development, Thailand Eastern Economic Corridor for Innovation and the main battlefield for the national economy under the support of the Belt and Road Initiative. We will promote the high-end tech based Chinese companies and the affiliated enterprises of Chinese Academy of Sciences, research institutes and universities step abroad and deepen the integration of ASEAN economies in the perspective of commercialization of national technology, industries in ASEAN region. We will intensify the cooperation in terms of ASEAN countries culture and high-skilled technical talents exchange and provide technique and policy advices to support the regional economic development and industrial upgrading and make contribution to the construction of China-ASEAN innovation community.

CAS ICCB Thailand now has the Senior Project Officer job opening. If you enjoy working in an environment that spans across different cultures and develops people both personally and professionally, please send in your application and current resume bilingual to xuanli@casiccb.com, and cc: jwwang@casiccb.com

Position Title:	Senior Project Officer, Thailand
Manager:	Executive Director, Growth Markets
Working Location:	Bangkok, Thailand
Working Time:	Monday to Friday, 08:30-16:30
Salary:	Discuss in person
Address:	90 CW Tower, Building B, 23rd Floor, room No. B2301-02, Ratchadapisek Rd., Huai Khwang, BKK
Tel:	+66(0)877683168, +66(0)938088988

Job Scope and Responsibilities:

CAS ICCB Thailand are looking for the Senior Project Officer to work closely with ED, Growth Markets, ELT, senior leaders and CAS ICCB Thailand colleagues in sales, marketing and editorial to lead government/non-government stakeholder engagement for the organization across businesses in Thailand. This position covers a broad range of Thailand organizations, including government ministries, bodies, research institutions, leading enterprises of Thailand and universities, and relevant state-affiliated entities engaged in marketing-oriented and policy development and funding in scientific research, higher education and training and employment areas. The successful candidate should be primarily focused on:

- Develop a strategic engagement plan to prioritize short/mid/long term opportunities working with a variety of potential local stakeholders.
- Build network of systematic relationships with target stakeholders to position CAS ICCB for strategic opportunities and influence at the highest and most appropriate levels with the objective of establishing CAS ICCB as a differentiated and privileged partner.
- Enhance CAS ICCB as well as CAS' profile as global thought leader and credible partner to local leading enterprises, government and academic leadership community.
- Work with colleagues to facilitate new business opportunities and partnerships and serve as on the ground contact to progress discussions in consistent and timely manner.
- Open doors and help gain access to key decision makers at ministerial, operational and other appropriate levels.
- Monitor policy developments relating to scientific research, higher education and training, research funding, higher education management; marketing development relating to local leading industry regulation and business on Science, Technology and Innovation.
- Report on developments to colleagues and facilitate appropriate action by the center.
- Represent CAS ICCB and CAS at industry meetings, coordinating with representatives of other companies, mobilizing support, networking, influencing and persuading.
- Interaction with government, funder, academic and media representatives.
- Management of internal and external communications regarding business in Thailand.
- Contribute to development of new business opportunities.
- Mobilization of society partners and STI relationships, where appropriate.
- Coordination with third party entities (trade associations etc.).

Preferred Qualifications:

- The ideal candidate should hold a university degree, and acquired at least 5-7 years' experience working in government, leading enterprises or senior project officer function
- Has existing network of government and industrial relationships
- Deep understanding of workings, processes, procedures, protocol of local business
- Effective public speaking skills, a good networker
- High level of spoken and written English and Thai Native
- Self-motivated, business-oriented, good communication, interpersonal and negotiation skills.